

Reading: Point of View and Line of Argument Mark Scheme
Q1	Explicit	[1]
Q2	Any 1 from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 'Humanity's reliance on fossil fuels is the true driver behind the global temperature increase.' • Indirectly stating why electric cars should be used • 'anything we can do to reduce our emissions on a personal level' 	[1] Allow any suitable alternatives
Q3	Any 2 from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Electric cars take a long time to charge • Electric cars are expensive 	[1] Allow any suitable alternatives
Q4	Any 1 from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • It will help the environment to use electric cars • It's more environmentally friendly to use electric cars • Humans are having a large impact on the environment and need to reduce it 	[1] Allow any suitable alternatives
Q5	Any 1 from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rachel Pinks • The third contribution 	[1]
Q6	Any 1 from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explicit point of view will directly state the author's opinion, e.g. 'electric cars are bad' • Implicit point of view talks around the issue, not directly addressing it 	[1]
Q7	Circled (a) Neutral	[1]