The word at the beginning or a sentence needs to start with a capital letter.  Shops does not require a capital letter.  The men are walking to work. They are having a conversation and drinking their coffees.  The men are walking to work and having a conversation. They are drinking their coffees.  The man [1]  Sings [1]  Any 1 from:  Any 1 from:  Sings [1]  Any 1 from:  Ben walked his dog. Ben has walked his dog. Ben had walked his dog. Ben had walked his dog. Ben was walking his dog.  Circled (c) It should be could have [1]	Q1	Writing: Grammar Mark Scheme – L1
Any 1 from:  The men are walking to work. They are having a conversation and drinking their coffees.  The men are walking to work and having a conversation. They are drinking their coffees.  The man  [1] Allow suitable alternatives  The man  [1]  G5 Sings  [1]  Any 1 from:  Ben walked his dog. Ben has walked his dog. Ben had walked his dog. Ben had walked his dog. Ben was walking his dog. Ben was walking his dog.	Q1		[2]
The men are walking to work. They are having a conversation and drinking their coffees.  The men are walking to work and having a conversation. They are drinking their coffees.  The man [1]  The man [1]  Sings [1]  Any 1 from:  Ben walked his dog. Ben has walked his dog. Ben had walked his dog. Ben was walking his dog. Ben was walking his dog.	Q2	Circled (b) Definite	[1]
The men are walking to work. They are having a conversation and drinking their coffees.  The men are walking to work and having a conversation. They are drinking their coffees.  The man [1]  The man [1]  Sings [1]  Any 1 from:  Ben walked his dog. Ben has walked his dog. Ben had walked his dog. Ben was walking his dog. Ben was walking his dog.
Q5 Sings [1]  Q6 Suddenly the sky turned black. [1]  Any 1 from:  Ben walked his dog. Ben has walked his dog. Ben had walked his dog. Ben was walking his dog.	Q3	<ul> <li>The men are walking to work. They are having a conversation and drinking their coffees.</li> <li>The men are walking to work and having a conversation. They are drinking their</li> </ul>	[1] Allow suitable alternatives
Q6 Suddenly the sky turned black. [1]  Any 1 from:  Ben walked his dog.  Ben has walked his dog.  Ben had walked his dog.  Ben had walked his dog.  Ben was walking his dog.	Q4	The man	[1]
Any 1 from:  Ben walked his dog.  Ben has walked his dog.  Ben had walked his dog.  Ben was walking his dog.	Q5	Sings	[1]
<ul> <li>Ben walked his dog.</li> <li>Ben has walked his dog.</li> <li>Ben had walked his dog.</li> <li>Ben was walking his dog.</li> </ul>	Q6	Suddenly the sky turned black.	[1]
Q8 Circled (c) It should be could have [1]	Q 7	<ul><li>Ben walked his dog.</li><li>Ben has walked his dog.</li><li>Ben had walked his dog.</li></ul>	[1]
	Q8	Circled (c) It should be could have	[1]