Writing Mark Scheme (Sample Assessment Paper 2)

Mark scheme information

This mark scheme is intended to support the valid and consistent marking of the examination paper identified above. This mark scheme includes:

- the total mark available for each activity
- the individual subject content coverage of each activity as well as coverage totals
- the marking process and considerations which must be followed.

Information for the marker

- The pass mark for this assessment is 35 marks.
- All marking must be completed consistently and the mark scheme must be applied fairly.
- Markers should award full marks if the candidate deserves full marks.
- Markers should be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate's response is not worthy of credit according to the guidance for that activity.
- Crossed-out work should be marked unless the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.
- If the candidate only completes the planning box and no other response is included, examiners should reward marks using 'best-fit'.

Skills Coverage is broken down into bands, each with its own set of descriptors.

Markers should read the response closely and should then determine a judgement about which descriptor, in consideration of all the evidence available to the Marker, best defines the response provided.

The exam paper itself will allow you to record proposed marks and initial thoughts in the margin of the page as you read through the responses.

You must consider Composition and SPaG for both pieces before combining the two to confirm the final mark.

This marking guidance covers both Activity 1 and Activity 2.

Consistently/frequently	Meets the demands of the subject content entirely or almost entirely.
Most of the time	Meets the demands of the subject content more often than not.
Some of the time	Meets the demands of the subject content at times but with a number of issues.
Rarely	Almost never meets the demands of the subject content and has many issues.

4	20. Punctuate writing correctly using a wide range of punctuation markers.	Punctuation expectations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • colons • commas • inverted commas • apostrophes • quotation marks A range would be at least four of the above. A limited range would be fewer than four of the above.
		A range of punctuation has been used and is consistently accurate throughout. Candidate has used items from the above range to mark punctuation clearly and correctly, including both simple and complex sentence structures, and to provide clarity and emphasis.	4
		Errors or omissions are rare, untypical and do not hinder meaning.
		A range of punctuation has been used and is accurate most of the time . Candidate has successfully used punctuation from the above range correctly, has made attempts at using more complex punctuation and some attempt has been made to mark complex sentence structures.	3
		Errors or omissions occur infrequently but do not hinder meaning.
		A limited range of punctuation has been used and is accurate and consistent some of the time . Infrequent attempts at using complex sentence structures have been used with some success.	2
		Errors or omissions occur on some occasions but do not/almost never hinder meaning.
		A limited range of punctuation has been used but is rarely accurate. Candidate has made little to no attempts at marking complex sentence structures.	1
		Errors or omissions occur regularly and often hinder meaning.
		A limited range of punctuation has been used inaccurately resulting in a significant impact on meaning.	0
		0 marks should be awarded for no awardable content.

4	21. Use correct grammar (e.g. subject-verb agreement, consistent use of a range of tenses, definite and indefinite articles) and modality devices (e.g. to express probability or desirability).	Grammar is consistently accurate; candidate has varied sentence structure, a range of tenses have been used appropriately, subject-verb agreement is accurate, definite and indefinite articles have been used correctly and modality devices have been used to express probability and desirability. Errors or omissions are rare, untypical and do not hinder meaning.	4
		Grammar is accurate most of the time ; candidate has mostly varied sentence structure, tenses are mostly used appropriately, subject-verb agreement is mostly accurate, definite and indefinite articles are mostly correct and some attempt has been made to use modality devices to express probability and desirability. Errors or omissions occur infrequently and do not hinder meaning.	3
		Grammar is accurate some of the time ; candidate has sometimes varied sentence structure, tenses have sometimes been used accurately but the range is limited and there may be inconsistencies, subject-verb agreement is sometimes accurate and definite and indefinite articles are sometimes used accurately. Modality devices may not have been used or, if used, are mostly inaccurate or inconsistent. Errors or omissions occur on some occasions but do not/almost never hinder meaning.	2
		Grammar has rarely been used accurately; candidate has made no attempt to vary sentence structure, tense choice is inappropriate, inconsistent and basic, subject-verb agreement is often incorrect, definite and indefinite articles are often used inaccurately and there has been little to no attempt at using modality devices. Errors or omissions occur regularly and often hinder meaning.	1
		Grammar has been used inaccurately throughout, resulting in a significant impact on meaning. 0 marks should be awarded for no awardable content.	0

3	24. Write text of an appropriate level of detail and of appropriate length (including where this is specified) to meet the needs of purpose and audience.	Please note, the Marker terms (i.e., frequently, some of the time etc) do not apply on this occasion as the response is considered one single text and a candidate cannot frequently write an appropriate level of detail in one instance. Therefore, the Marker should determine a mark based on the degree of information provided by the writer in response to the activity requirements and in consideration of the holistic statements below.
		Minimum word count length – 250 words
		The candidate has produced text which is highly detailed , comprehensively meets the needs of purpose and audience, and considers all aspects of the task. Response meets or is above the minimum word count.	3
		The candidate has produced text which is mostly detailed , has met most of the needs of audience ad purpose and considers all or most aspects of the task. Response meets or is above the minimum word count.	2
		The candidate has produced text which is limited in detail and short in length, and which does not fully meet the needs of audience and purpose and considers very few of the requirements of the task. Response is a maximum of 20% lower than the minimum word count.	1
		The candidate has produced text which is very limited in detail and very short in length, does not meet the needs of audience and purpose and is clearly insufficient to meet the requirements of the task. Response is more than 20% lower than the minimum word count. 0 marks should be awarded for no awardable content.	0

3	25. Organise writing for different purposes using appropriate format and structure (e.g. standard templates, paragraphs, bullet points, tables).	See Appendix 1 for breakdown of marks	3
3	26. Convey clear meaning and establish cohesion using organisational markers effectively.	A list of typical markers is outlined below. Markers deployed must be done so effectively and with purpose. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bullet point lists • Numbered lists • Tables • Headings/sub-headings • Indices • Headers • Footers Not all will be required for each assessment response.
		Markers are frequently used effectively to help convey clear meaning. The lack of markers - where absent - does not impact or alter cohesion.	3
		Markers are used effectively some of the time to support clear meaning. The lack of markers does not impact or alter cohesion.	2
		Markers are rarely used effectively to convey meaning, and meaning is not always clear. The lack of markers often impacts or alters cohesion.	1
		Markers are never/almost never used effectively. The rare use of markers significantly hinders or alters cohesion. 0 marks should be awarded for no awardable content.	0
