

Reading: Presentational Features Mark Scheme – L1
Q1	Any 2 from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● 'We explore how responsible logging works, and the arguments for and against it' ● 'What is responsible logging?' ● 'How does logging work?' ● 'Trees that are commercially logged in the UK' ● 'Why should responsible logging continue?' ● 'What are the arguments for and against logging?' ● 'What next?' 	[2]
Q2	Any 2 from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Headings ● Subheadings ● Columns ● Photograph(s)/Chart/Graph ● Paragraphs ● Bullet points ● Boxes 	[2]
Q3	Sarah Birch wrote the article. Oscar Oak took the photograph.	[2]
Q4	Any 1 from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● What the article is about ● The article is formal ● The article is about logging ● The article will involve a debate ● The article investigates responsible logging 	[1] Allow any suitable alternatives
Q5	Circled answer (a) They break up the text to introduce new ideas	[1]
Q6	Any 1 from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Bullet points ● List 	[1]
Q7	Circled answer (a) It provides evidence for the noise problem addressed in the article	[1]
Q8	Circled answer (c) The article is formal	[1]